Minutes of the meeting held on 18.02.2017

The internal members of the IQAC met with the members of the Debate Club and representatives of the Students' Union in the 6, Riverside Road campus of the College to discuss about organizing the Students' Debate Competition on 23.02.2017 to celebrate 150th Birth Anniversary of Sister Nivedita. The meeting was presided by Dr. Arunav Banerjee, Joint Convener of the Debate Club. Dr. Sutapa Ghosh Dastidar, IQAC Coordinator was present in the meeting.

Dr. Arunav Banerjee reported that a Debate Competition on Sister Nivedita, organized by the IQAC and the Students' Union, is going to be held on 23.02.2017, in association with the Debate Club. The students of the college will participate in the debate. The Competition will be held in Bibhutibhusan Hall at 6, Riverside Road campus from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm.

Resolution 1: The Debate Competition will be a trilingual one. Languages that may be spoken in the competition will be Bengali, Hindi and English to accommodate majority of the students who are comfortable in speaking in these three languages.

Dr. Dipak Choudhury proposed a modification of the debate topic so that the students can speak for and against the motion. Dr. Sutapa Ghosh Dastidar, IQAC Coordinator reported that the topic is already decided and it has already been uploaded in the college website. There is no scope of modifying the topic any more.

Resolution 2: Each speaker will get 6 minutes time to speak. At the end of 6 minutes, a buzzer will be pressed and after the sound of the buzzer each speaker will get an additional 2 minutes to complete his speech. No excess time over this (6+2) minutes will be entertained for any student.

Resolution 3: The number of participants in the competition will be limited to 15. If the number of applicants is more than 15, a screening will be organized on the day before the event, i.e. 22.02.2017 on the basis of an extempore.

Resolution 4: The debate topic will be given in Bengali, English and Hindi.

- Topic in Bengali will be "Bartoman jubo samaj Bhagini Niveditar adarshey onupranito."
- Topic in English will be "The youth today are inspired by the ideals of Sister Nivedita."
- Topic in Hindi will be "Aaj ka yuv samaj Bhagini Nivedita ke aadarsh dwara anuprerit hai."

Resolution 5: The students who are willing to participate in the Debate Competition will have to enlist their names within 21.02.2017. The representatives of the Students' Union will collect the names and will hand over the names to Dr. Arunav Banerjee on the morning of 23.02.2017.

Resolution 6: Only the first, second and third position holders in the competition will get prizes, but all the participants will receive the 'Certificate of Participation'.

Resolution 7: Dr. Dipak Choudhury, Dr. Arunav Banerjee, Smt. Madhumita Ghoshal, Smt. Maumita Chaudhury and Smt. Molly Ghosh will act as the judges in the competition.

Resolution 8: The representatives of the Students' Union suggested for the inclusion of any one faculty member from Dept. of Hindi in the panel of judges since some participants will also speak in Hindi. In this regard, the members decided that Dr. Satyendra Pandey of Dept. of Hindi will also act as a judge.
