The Venue

Barrackpore, spelled Barrackpur or Barakpur at times, is located in the south-eastern part of the state of West Bengal. It constitutes the oldest Cantonment in India. The name of the cantonment is probably derived from the word 'barrack', there having been troops stationed here since 1772. In 1824 Indian troops stationed in Barrackpore refused to participate in a mission during the First Anglo-Burmese War (1824–26). It was also in Barrackpore that the mutinous actions of a sepoy, Mangal Pandey, in March 1857, came to be regarded as the first event in a growing series of anti-British acts that culminated in the great Sepoy Mutiny. Barrackpore Park contains the former suburban residence of the British viceroy of India. The city is also the site of Central Inland Capture Fisheries Research Institute, the oldest organization of its kind in India.

The College

Barrackpore Rastraguru Surendranath College was established in 1953 in the historical town of Barrackpore, situated in the East bank of the river Ganges. It is among the very few colleges in the state to be awarded as 'College with Potential for Excellence' by UGC. It was formerly affiliated to the University of Calcutta and is presently affiliated to the West Bengal State University. Over the years the college has consolidated its position as a premier institution in the state of West Bengal imparting knowledge in the diverse fields of Humanities, Commerce and Basic Sciences. It is a NAAC 4th Cycle re-accredited 'B++' Grade college with the privilege of being the first college in the state to have completed the 4th cycle of accreditation. The college is also a proud recipient of DST-FIST funds, DBT-BOOST & RUSA funds. It is a Government aided college and presently runs 28 UG courses and 7 autonomous PG courses with about 6500 students.

The Library

Central Library is computerized with around 60,000 printed documents and 46 regular journals and magazines. The library is automated with open source software Koha integrated with RFID system. The catalogue of the entire collection of the library is available 24X7 remotely through the WebOPAC.

The Library is member of N - LIST (National Library and Information Services infrastructure for Scholarly Content) consortium of INFLIBNET through which the members of the library can access 6300+ e-journals and 1,00,000 e-books. Moreover, the Library is subscribing IEEE, Sage Journals in electronic forms. The Library is a part of NPTEL (National Programme on Technology Enhanced Learning), an initiative of IITs & IISc to enhance the quality of education in the country by developing curriculum based video and web courses. The Library is Institutional Member of BCL, Kolkata. There are Departmental Libraries in each department for catering to the academic needs of the students of concerned departments.

Theme

According to the American sociologist Earl Robert Babbie, Research is a systematic inquiry to describe, explain, predict, and control an observed phenomenon involving inductive and deductive methods. Ethics forms the moral basis of a particular conduct or action. The seminar Research Ethics will try to focus on the ethical norms of research to find out the measures to protect research data, promote good research and ensure intellectual asset. Publications being the ultimate platform to share research findings, ethics forms an integral part in every research endeavor.

Several professional associations, government agencies and academic institutions have developed the specific codes of ethics related to research. Some of the principles are research integrity, honesty, respect for intellectual property etc.

In every aspect of research ethics, the role of libraries and library professionals, is highly significant. In the present Google It world, the seminar will strive to highlight the pros and cons of conducting good research maintaining the ethical norms with the support of library system.

Topics for deliberation may be:

- ♣ Principles of Research Ethics
- ♣ Research Integrity & Collegiality
- ♣ IPR and its Protection
- ♣ Research Misconduct
- ♣ Role of Government and Other Agencies to Promote Research Integrity
- ♣ Tools for Addressing Research Misconduct
- ♣ Role of Libraries to Promote Integrity
- ♣ and other similar topics.
