

BEST PRACTICE 1:

BRSN COLLEGE INCUBATION CENTER – A STEP TOWARDS REAL WORLD BUSINESS PRACTICE

Objective

The primary objective of the college's Incubation Center is to empower students with additional skill sets that enhance their employability and entrepreneurial capabilities. By equipping students with practical knowledge in bottle printing, cup printing, cap printing, t shirt printing, and photo frame making, the initiative aims to bridge the gap between academic education and market demands. The secondary goal is to foster creativity, self-reliance, and an entrepreneurial spirit among students while providing them with a platform to learn marketing strategies and engage in real-world business practices.

Context

In today's competitive job market, possessing unique and marketable skills is critical for students. Recognizing this need, the college introduced an incubation center as part of its commitment to holistic student development. This initiative aligns with the institution's mission to prepare students for the future by offering hands-on training in craft-based skills complemented by marketing classes. The program was specifically designed to cater to students from diverse academic backgrounds, ensuring inclusivity and broad applicability. By providing a certificate upon completion, the college enhances the credibility and value of the skills learned, enabling students to leverage these for job opportunities or entrepreneurial ventures.

The Practice

The course combines practical training and theoretical knowledge over a structured timeline. Students are taught to design and produce printed bottles, cups, caps, and photo frames using modern tools and techniques, under the supervision of a subject expert. Additionally, marketing classes are organized to teach students branding, pricing, sales strategies, and customer engagement. The curriculum emphasizes a hands-on approach, allowing students to experiment with designs and products. Regular workshops and classes are conducted by experts to provide insights into current market trends. The college also encourages incubation centre to sell their products ( both customized and non-customized) to the members of the extended college family . At the end of the course, certificates are awarded to each participant as a testament to their skills and training.

Evidence of Success

The Incubation Centre of our college, inaugurated on July 24, 2024, has emerged as a beacon of innovation and skill development. Since its inception, it has successfully trained 43 students, with another 44 currently enrolled in its programs. The centre's commitment to fostering creativity and entrepreneurship has not only benefitted its participants but also contributed to the college's ethos of holistic education.

Products crafted at the centre have been used to felicitate eminent guests visiting the campus, showcasing the practical application of the skills imparted. This initiative has highlighted the centre's potential in producing tangible, high-quality outputs, reinforcing its credibility.

A notable achievement of the centre is the recognition of a dedicated participant as a "Master Trainer." This individual now assists the subject expert in training others, exemplifying the centre's focus on peer learning and leadership development. As a reward for his exceptional dedication, the college authorities have granted him a special scholarship. This thoughtful gesture has sparked enthusiasm and motivation among other participants, encouraging them to excel.

The Incubation Centre stands as a testament to the college's vision of nurturing innovation, fostering talent, and creating opportunities for students to thrive in a competitive world.

Problems Encountered

Despite its success, the program faced several challenges. One major issue was the initial lack of awareness and interest among students, requiring extensive promotional efforts. Ensuring consistent attendance and engagement was another hurdle, especially for students balancing academic commitments alongside the course. Technical difficulties during training sessions occasionally hindered progress, necessitating additional sessions to address learning gaps. Lastly, creating sustainable market linkages for student products required continuous effort and collaboration with external stakeholders. These challenges, though significant, were gradually addressed through strategic planning and feedback-driven improvements.
